RESOLUTION NO. 04-20

WHEREAS, Gay Selby has served as a member of the Higher Education Coordinating Board since 1992, and has served as board vice chair with three successive chairmen; and

WHEREAS, Gay has worked with four executive directors, led several special and regular committees of the board, and provided critical direction in the development of three master plans; and

WHEREAS, Gay's history of service to the community also includes 10 years as superintendent of the Kelso School District and many years with the Spokane, Pullman, and Kennewick school districts; and

WHEREAS, As a chair of the board's policy committee and a member of the financial aid committee, she has been instrumental in opening the doors of higher education to thousands of Washington students; and

WHEREAS, Gay has been a tireless advocate for our state's neediest students, ensuring that financial aid is available to help them attend – and complete – their degrees and programs; and

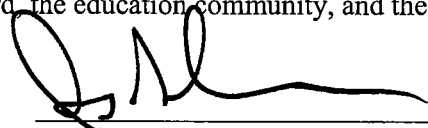

WHEREAS, She has brought a thoughtful and critical perspective to the board's deliberations on higher education issues, ranging from branch campuses and regional planning to teacher preparation and financial aid; and

WHEREAS, Gay's many contributions to the students of our state, their families, and our communities will endure long after her days on the board have come to a close;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members and staff of the Higher Education Coordinating Board extend their deepest gratitude and appreciation to Gay Selby for her many years of service to the board, the education community, and the people of Washington.
